

Learn tennis from the pros

Join the Niagara-on-the-Lake Tennis Club, and learn from the professionals.

The club has teamed up with tennis professionals from White Oaks Resort to offer clinics and instruction at the Memorial Park tennis courts, beginning in early May.

"We are really pleased to be able to provide high quality tennis instruction from some of the very best professionals in Ontario," says Hugh Dow, a director of the club.

"We are particularly proud of our junior program, which offers classes for all skill levels."

The junior program, for kids aged four to 18, was very popular last year, with about 100 kids registered in various classes.

The first eight-week session begins Thursday, May 6. Registration for the junior program, which is two hours a week, on Thursdays from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m., and for adult membership, takes place at Memorial Park Saturday, April 27 and again May 4.

The junior program includes tournaments and fun events to keep kids engaged and interested, says Dow.

Kids registered in the beginning classes at the NOTL Tennis Club are playing on a small court with larger balls used for the junior program, generally recognized as the most effective way to get kids comfortable with the game. As the kids get older they move to a larger court size and conventional tennis balls.
