

Rosemary Goodwin was one of the NOTL Tennis Club members who celebrated Wimbledon events Saturday with Whites and Woodens, which required players to wear white and play with wooden racquets using white tennis balls - all Wimbledon rules. The fun continued Sunday morning with members gathered at the Sandtrap Pub and Grill to watch the Wimbledon men's final, again with mandatory white, as shown by Margo Hickson and Joanne Dow as they listen to piper Alick Feller open the festivities.

