Men's and women's doubles championships a day of memories . . . and winners

There have been a lot of events in the 42 years of the Niagara-on-the-Lake Tennis Club, but many great memories made, but Sunday topped them all by a long shot, says Rosemary Goodwin.

It was the first time for the men's and women's doubles championships to be combined into one weekend of festivities, and it was an overwhelming success, she says,

Because of the rain on Saturday morning, the tournament moved indoors to the club at White Oaks, which provided four courts for a few hours of preliminary rounds.

The tournament weekend was made memorable by the combined efforts of the 46 competitors and the many volunteers who supported them, but it was made extraordinary by the vision and leadership of tournament director Albert Reyes, who received an overwhelming round of applause and congratulations at the conclusion of the awards ceremony, says Goodwin,

"Albert showed us we're coming into our own at the NOTL Tennis Club ... that we can be a club with big aspirations."

For the Roman and Maria Korda Trophy, the Men's Doubles champions are Hugh Dow and Don Pozojevic. They defeated Michael Alexander and Mark Stevens in the final by a score of 6-3 6-3, having earlier won an epic match with Jeff Joanovic and Gerry McIlhone by the tightest of scores, 7-6 7-5.

For the David and Donna Lailey Trophy, the Women's Doubles champions are Sarah Chapman-Jay and Thitima Christopher. They become the first repeat champions of any club event in recent memory, having won in 2011 as well. They defeated Lil Cohen and Rosemary Goodwin in the final by a score of 6-4 6-1, after beating Lori Oakes and Susan Flight in the semi-final.

For the Niagara Motors Trophy (and the coveted Red Shirt), the victors were Sheila Krause and Dorothy Booth. They defeated Marilyn Francis and Carmen Bowron 10-6 in the final match. Both pairs of finalists had played gruelling semi-finals. Dorothy and Sheila survived against Charlene Juras and Susan Werner 6-4 0-6 10-4, while Marilyn and Carmen edged past Jacqueline Donnelly and Philippa deLeonardis by a score of 6-1 5-7 10-2.
