Canadian Wimbledon Players

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Yes, we find ourselves in the middle of the Wimbledon fortnight. Enjoy the matches, and do try to join us at the Club and the Pub.

Schedule:

Tuesday, July 7, 4:30 - 6:00 p.m. Please make an effort to watch the traditional rivalry, the Three Nation Challenge. Paul Dorgan (Australia) and Kevin Feeney (Canada) take on Hugh Snyder (South Africa) and Ross Robinson (Canada) in a match with history back to 1987. Very mediocre tennis, but high level trash talk, with occasional great shots. Come out and cheer for Snyder and Robinson, and please, boo Dorgan and Feeney. Norm Hardie (South Africa) will be watching from the Royal Box, and really enjoys meeting new people. The South Africans both played international rugby back in the 1960's, and enjoy good competition. Bring cold, wet refreshments. Wear your whites.

Thursday, July 9, 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. New tennis friends from Pittsburgh will be playing tennis with eight members of our Club. Come and enjoy this InterClub, and cheer the good shots of both teams. Our team is made up of Kay Ashwood, Wendy Dell, Rosemary Goodwin, Audrey Wall, George Dell, Terry Francis, Richard Berti, Robert McCaughey, Dominic Ventresca and Gerry McIlhorne. Convenor Ross has a unique format up his sleeve. Come see and cheer both teams.

Saturday, July 11, 2:00 - 4:00 p.m. The traditional Whites and Woodens fun. Play tennis as the legends did, with wooden rackets (we have plenty) and white tennis balls. Yes, Rod Laver, Big Bill Tilden, Evonne Goolagong Cawley and Margaret Court all won Wimbledon championships with the small rackets. Strawberries and Cream to be served. $5 / per person, pay at the event. Put on your tennis whites, and enjoy this informal drop-in format. RSVP to Ross. ross@nfwhm.com

Sunday, July 12, 10:00 a.m. Breakfast at Wimbledon, at The SANDTRAP. Wear your most stylin' whites, MANDATORY, and join a true gallimaufry of friends. Enjoy the Gentlemen's Finals with about 80 fun lovers. Much fun, including a hot breakfast (about $9.00, Strawberries and Cream, surprise guests, appropriate music and a 50/50 draw. And, we are trying to get a grand prize of two tickets to London for July 2016. This is going to be so much fun...

Got it? Please RSVP to Ross regarding Whites and Woodens, and Breakfast at Wimbledon. ross@nfwhm.com

Be there, friends
