

Sports

Editor Penny Coles

905-468-3283, ext. 103 penny.coles@sunmedia.ca

Sixteen enthusiastic members of the Niagara-on-the-Lake Tennis Club dressed warmly Saturday morning and played two hours of chilly tennis, getting a jump on the 2015 season at Memorial Park. Four games of doubles started at 8:30 a.m., and the courts were alive with camaraderie, said member Ross Robinson. Some great shots were made, and some double faults were seen, he said.

Photo submitted by
Dominic Ventresca